DESIGN, THROUGH DETAIL

EXCELLENCE

India Pride

The finer details, edgy structure and the quilted upholstery together lend this chair the Boss look. The big cushions and large handles are well-balanced with thin edges. The solid rod structure is masterfully sandwiched between the quilted leather upholstery to add that much-deserved finesse, best suited for a plush director's cabin. It is further perfected with an intelligent any angle locking, knee tilt mechanism and a smart compressed wood stand with brass inlay detailing.

Adapting the same design philosophy, we have crafted this plush couch that seamlessly complements the chair and extends the same vibe to your office. This solid rod couch sandwiched artfully between the quilted leather upholstery is just the addition your plush office needs. Well, you can opt for stainless steel, brass or copper finish and complete the loop with the centre or side table from the same collection.
