Slic Luxor

The first impression chair, Luxor, is as stylish as it is impressive! A stainless steel pipe flows around the chair profile while forming a loop at the armrest. Its quilted leather upholstery with horizontal sectioning and artful stitching pattern makes it appealing for every director, top-end executive's cabin. With leather padded armrest and any angle locking knee-tilt mechanism it helps you multi-task in your work. The stand is composed using the same stainless steel pipe detail, retaining its lightness.

The stainless steel capsule pipe remains the striking feature even of the newly added couch of this collection. It is enhanced by upholstery in posh quilted leather that boasts of horizontal sectioning and artful stitching. Adapting the same design philosophy, we have created the centre and corner table that complements the chair and couch in the best possible way.
