Majestic

The name says it all. It's all about power, panache and aristocracy. Its archaic profile, followed with the whole strong wooden frame structure, loose cushion seats and brass button embellishments gives it an aristocratic look. Its solid wood revolving base with any angle locking and knee-tilt mechanism gives you a lot of freedom and control over this robust chair. To enhance its personality, we have added solid wood carved legs with a whole button tufted look that makes this one look quite like a throne!

To enhance the whole flattering vibe, we have designed a sofa in a similar language and have added a centre and corner table that appears equally stately and noble. If you wish to add it anywhere, make sure the setting does justice to this piece and stands at par with the whole collection.
