Tenor

Nothing spells power better than Tenor. Its exquisite leather upholstery, stainless steel buttons and wooden legs lend it that rich and powerful look. A must-have for those private offices, it boasts of compressed wood structure and double quilted loose cushions, that gives you extra comfort. Its linear design with slight curves makes it apt for any contemporary setting. The armrests, designed in the shape of alphabet Z, gives you more space and excellent comfort without restricting your hand movements. Same goes for its any angle locking and the smart knee-tilt mechanism that gives you freedom of movement.

Extending the same design language, we have created the Tenor Couch. Perfect for your private office lounge areas or use it for seating your guests of honour. It's grid and knots look with those stainless steel buttons is just the way to set the right vibe for any meeting. Going ahead you can also club it with the centre or coffee table from the same family.
